William Wheeler of No. 9 Arnold lane, was presented in police court Monday morning on charges of breach of the peace and intoxication, to which he pleaded guilty. The testimony of the officers was to the effect that Wheeler's wife had complained to them that he was treating her badly. The officers testified that when they arrived at the Wheeler home Wheeler had skipped out. At about midnight he was arrested on the street and was locked up at the police station.

The station. Mrs. Wheeler testified that her husband was supporting her properly. In answer to a question by the court, Probation Officer S. Arnold Peckham referred to his book and answered that Wheeler had been before the court on August 15, 1921, and pleaded guilty to charges similar to the ones he faced Monday. He was fined $15 and costs amounting to $23.15, and was given time to pay the charges. There remains an unpaid balance of $16 January 1921. This year and Wheeler was given a thirty-day jail sentence, with judgment suspended for six months. Wheeler reported to him and argued that it was for but thirty days.

Judge Fox then imposed a fine of $10 and costs for intoxication, and $5 for breach of the peace and added a jail sentence of thirty days. Wheeler was taken to jail later in the day. He still faces the thirty-day sentence meted out to him by the superior court.

In a raid at Wheeler's home by Federal Chief W. S. Congdon and County Detective W. E. Jackson, the officers found three quarts of whiskey and seven bottles of home brew. After Wheeler served his jail sentence he will go before U. S. Commissioner Earl Mathewson, at Norwich, on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor. This is Wheeler's second offense of this kind.

Andrew Jersak, of Willimantic, charged with intoxication had a plea of not guilty entered for him before Judge Fox. He testified that he came to this city Saturday in search of a doctor, but found a blind tiger first and became lost in the snow squall later in the evening. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed and paid by the defendant.

Sunday marked the thirty-seventh birthday of San Jose council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus in this city. An event remembered by nine of the charter members surviving. The original number applying for a charter was twenty-two. The ceremonies took place on Thursday evening, March 15, 1922, in what was then the Knights of Pythias hall on Alford's hardware store on Main street. The following was the degree team: Andrew Smith of Hartford, acting grand knight; Michael P. Scanlon of Hartford, then editor of the Connecticut Catholic, now the Catholic Transcript, acting as deputy grand knight. The third degree was worked by Supreme Grand Knight James T. Miller of New Haven and he and the then National Secretary, Daniel C. Colwell of New Haven were the installing officers. Mr. Colwell is the only member of the team living and is now national chairman of the order. After the installation exercises adjournment was taken to the Commercial house, where a banquet was served. The proprietor of the house was George F. Johnson. The officers elected were: Grand knight, James T. Miller; deputy grand knight, Patrick Fitzpatrick; recording secretary, Daniel P. Dunn; financial secretary, William J. Vandenman; treasurer, John H. Morrison; wardens, Edward Grimes, inside guard, Robert E. Carney; outside guard, James H. Maxwell; lecturer, Dr. T. H. McNally; advocate, Hugh Carney; A. G. Joseph; C. A. G. John McDonough; C. P. Dr. T. H. McNally.

Of the twenty-two men who applied for the charter of San Jose council, nine survive as members: James F. Twomey, Joseph P. Colter, John F. Carey, Daniel P. Dunn, James Courtney, Robert E. Carney, James H. Maxwell, John H. Morrison and John McDonough. The others were: James E. Murray, William Vandenman, James A. Dejan, Michael O'Neill, James J. Fay, Thomas Griffin, Hugh Carney, Peter Ward, Patrick Fitzpatrick, Edward T. Grimes, John H. Dawson and Dr. T. H. McNally.

The March meeting of the board of directors held Monday evening in the common council chamber was called to order at 8 o'clock by Mayor Charles A. Gates with all members of the board present. After the reading by the city clerk of the minutes of the last regular and special meetings, the board, on the report of the Superintendent of Streets Irving M. Ford and Chief of Police Daniel J. Kilgore were accepted as read. The resignation of George K. Allen as a member of Engine Co. No. 1, effective March 1, was read and accepted. The mayor was authorized to borrow the sum of $10,000, in full for the current season, to help defray the current expenses of the city. Application of Moriarty & Raftery, plumbers, for drain layers' license, which was recommended by Superintendent of Sewers Jeremiah Lyons, was granted, subject to the approval of the corporation counsel. It was voted that the sidewalk application of James B. Healy on the west side of South street, 121 feet in length and about six feet in width, take the usual course. A communication from Louis H. Hodder recommending the consideration of the advisability of installing the fingerprint system in the local police department was read; it was voted to refer it to the

GOOD FOR THAT "FLU" COUGH.
For quick relief from the wearing coughs that hang on after the grippe or influenza, take Foley's Honey and Tar. Mrs. K. D. Drake, Childs, Md. writes: "After an attack of the flu that left me with a severe cough, nothing seemed to relieve me till I tried Foley's Honey and Tar, which I can highly recommend. It is a sure cure for all whooping cough and colds. It puts a soothing, healing coating over the inflamed surface of the pharynx, eases hoarseness, clears the air passages. Lee & Osgood Co.

"---and we are a healthy, happy family now"

-Louis Gingras

Tingling with abundant energy, appetite hearty, nerves strong and steady and their faces radiant with the glow of perfect health, the entire family of Louis Gingras, 9 Harrison Ave., Providence, R. I., are an eloquent tribute to the powers of Tanlac, the greatest family medicine the world has ever known.

"I've put Tanlac to the test four times right in my own family and it hasn't failed me once," declares Mr. Gingras. "My wife, my son and my daughter, as well as myself, have all been built up from a half-sick, run-down, worn-out set of people into a healthy, happy family brimful of new life and energy."

And the experience of this family is only typical of thousands of others whose statements are on file in the Tanlac offices. Hardly a day passes that does not bring scores of such messages of praise from every part of the United States and Canada from families where mother, father, son and daughter have all found health, contentment and the joys of living through simply taking a course of Tanlac.

"Take, for instance," the case of John Widner, 1571 Roosevelt Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., who says: "My wife, myself and little boy are now as healthy, happy family as you will ever see—and it's all due to Tanlac."

Or that of Mrs. John Marquis and her family of sixteen living in Manchester, N. H., at 293 Belmont St. She says: "Tanlac has been the only medicine used in our house for two years and it has kept every one of the sixteen here in the best of health."

In Chicago, Frank R. Richards, of 441 South Wood St., writes: "We have been better than ever since we have used the remarkable way it has built up my wife, my son and myself to where we are the very picture of health."

Doris May's second R-C starring production, Eden and Return, now showing at the Davis theatre, gives this vaudeville young actress rather joyous vehicle, following her first R-C laughing success, The Foolish Age.

Like her first production, Eden and Return is a sparkling comedy. Eden and Return was adapted from Ralph E. Renaud's famous stage success of the same title and all the laugh-provoking elements of the play have been retained and expanded in the screen version.

Bachelors and spinsters are supposed to know just how to train up a child in the way he should go, but sometimes even these gentle theorists get into deep waters when they attempt to manage the affairs of young persons.

The dire predicament of Sir Marcus Ordeyne when he found himself suddenly saddled with the care of a beautiful girl who said she was eighteen, but who had the naive manners of a child of ten, provides the comedy of "Morals," the Realist picture, starring May McAvoy, which is the subject of the feature.

Paramount Magazine will conclude the bill.

The March meeting of the town council and probate court was held at the town hall Monday afternoon, March 6th. Bills ordered paid amounted to $222.70, of which $100 was for removing snow from the highways.

College Lectures
Professor Alfred D. P. Hamlin, of Columbia University is to lecture on "Milestones of Architecture," at Connecticut college this (Tuesday) afternoon at 4 o'clock.
Mr. Hamlin has been for many years professor of the history of architecture in Columbia university. He is the author of a standard work on that subject, which is used in schools and colleges throughout the country, and has lectured before a large number of clubs, art associations and colleges.

Born in Constantinople, the son of Cyrus Hamlin, the founder of Bates college, he pursued his literary and professional studies abroad and in America. Dr. Hamlin writes and speaks of the great monuments of architecture in a manner both intimate and familiar. His lectures given before such academic groups as Yale University and Vassar college are spoken of as intellectual treats, attracting attention over the entire country. They are given in clear and simple language and are abundantly illustrated with lantern slides.

St. ends of the college and the public are invited to attend this lecture.

My Wild Irish Rose.
The three act comedy drama, My Wild Irish Rose, which is to be presented by St. Mary's Players, promises an evening of much enjoyment to the barn house which it is already assured of having. The cast ranks high in local talent and will feel right at home when the curtain rises. Between the acts first class specialities will be introduced and sometime during the evening the revelation will be made of who is to be the owner of the handsome hope chest that has been on display in the window of Porteous & Mitchell Co. for the last few days. The entire proceeds of the evening will go towards the memorial tower at the new church for the soldier boys of the parish who served in the world war.

The principals in the cast are the following:
